AntiOxidant Farms® was founded by a former farmer and food industry entrepreneur after he found himself suddenly hospitalized with a medical condition that nearly killed him. The day he left the hospital, he made a vow to create a new food and beverage company offering delicious, fresh-tasting products that hold up to scrutiny from outside, independent nutritional experts. Today AntiOxidant Farms is a growing network of like-minded independent nutritionists, quality grocers and hard-working family farmers dedicated to producing all-natural, fresh-tasting and nutritionally sound products.
